JANUARY'S BOOK TALK SELECTION:

MESSAGE FROM AN UNKNOWN CHINESE MOTHER: STORIES OF LOSS AND LOVE

"Xinran has written one of the most powerful accounts of the lives of Chinese women. Her searing stories of mothers who have been driven to abandon their daughters or give them up for adoption is a masterful and significant work of literary reportage and oral history."

AFHK invites you to join us for a new bimonthly evening book talk beginning this January. This will be an opportunity to discuss adoption-related fiction and non-fiction works in a casual setting, eat, and enjoy each other's company. Book Talk is open to adoptive parents, waiting parents, adult adoptees, and friends of adoption. There is no ongoing commitment required; just come when the book topic interests you. Attendees need to purchase the designated book on their own.

Mark your calendar now for Tuesday, March 8 when we will be discussing "The Connected Child: Bring Hope and Healing to Your Adoptive Family" by Karyn Purvis.
